

Thomas Gauthier

UX / UI / VR Designer
3D's technologies Engineer

I am currently in the process to completing my last year at L'Ecole de Design Nantes Atlantique, leading me to a Master's Degree in Immersive User Experience Design and parallel to a Master's Degree at L'ENSAM Paris in 3D's technologies management.

Through the UX design process, my main purpose is to help people having an easier life using new technologies by creating optimized solutions with and for final users.
